

Fourth Grade Summer Bingo

B	O	O	K	S
Write a letter to the author of a book you read, and ask the author at least 3 questions.	Read a book your parents read as a kid.	You and a friend read the same book. Talk about what you both liked and disliked in the book.	Rewrite a book as a graphic novel.	Find a place in your book where a character makes an important choice. Write about what would happen if he made a different choice.
Read another book by your summer reading author just for fun.	Redesign the cover of your summer reading book.	Read a book that has a movie, then watch the movie and compare the two.	Make a Venn Diagram to compare your book to a book you had already read.	Come up with a new ending for your summer reading book.
Make an advertisement for something in one of your books.	Write and illustrate a sequel to your summer reading book.		Write a sentence about your book starting with each letter of the alphabet.	Pretend you joined the main character of your book for a day. Write about your day.
Choose a biography or memoir. Write a paragraph about how that person has an impact on you.	Look up information about the author of a book you read and write about his/her career.	Write an epilogue to a book you read fast-forwarding 5 years from the ending.	Draw a picture of your favorite character and write words that describe him around the picture.	Make a timeline of your summer reading book.
Listen to an audiobook.	Write a paragraph about how a book you read will affect your life.	Write a short story about the characters from one of your books.	Make a collage that describes your book.	Draw a detailed map of your book's setting. Include a map key and map date.

